Sacrament of Baptism

We have received guidance on the celebration of Baptism in our churches - these can now take place. Social distancing must be observed (1metre with face covering/ mask) and the number of people allowed at any one baptism is 30.

The whole ceremony will take place around the baptism font - front benches for the elderly and infirm only, everyone else stands - entrance into church by the sacristy door (by grotto).

Parents who have postponed their child's baptism due to the coronavirus pandemic should now rearrange a date by phoning the presbytery or preferably by email - Baptisms for single families only unless families are closely related.

The times of Baptism will be 12.00noon on Saturdays or 1.00pm on Sundays by appointment (other times may be available including weekdays - times are limited due to the necessity of cleaning and sanitising the building after each ceremony).

Fr Sean and Deacon Tim will facilitate families as far as is reasonable.
