Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Primary School is looking for a teacher from Easter 2023 (or earlier if available). The role is quite exciting, it will be part class teaching and part tutoring. Ideally we are looking for a practising Catholic. The role is for 4 or 5 days per week depending on the availability of the person appointed, on a fixed term contract from April to December 2023 and will then be reviewed. See our recruitment page, <https://www.ourladyoflourdesprimary.com/vacancies-at-olol/> we welcome school visits to meet the Head Teacher and get a feel for the school before application.

Our Lady of Lourdes School are looking for traditional Irish musicians in our parish community who would be interested in volunteering in school on or around St Patrick's Day for short slots of time to celebrate and share traditional Irish music with the children. Volunteers will be supervised by DBS checked staff. If interested (and happy with tea and treats as payment!) please contact Mrs Maxwell at the office 0121 444 2684 or enquiries@ourlady.bham.sch.uk

LOL School invite parents and parishioners to join us after Mass on St Patrick's Day for a coffee morning (from the end of Mass to 11.00 am). We will be serving Irish treats and fundraising to support the work of Birmingham Irish Association's Dementia Centres. We hope that you will be able to join us.
